Call for Articles for January 2016 Edition of MetricViews

The Editors of MetricViews, IFPUG's semi-annual publication, are now accepting articles for the January, 2016 edition. We are seeking articles of between 1,000 and 3,000 words, with or without graphics, on a subject of continuing interest to Function Point Analysis and SNAP practitioners. Articles on measurement of Emerging Technologies will be especially appreciated, as will articles following a theme of your choice.

Please submit your first draft to cmc@ifpug.org by Monday, November 30, for consideration for the January, 2016 edition, which will be distributed electronically mid-February, 2016.

Articles submitted on or before November 30 will have the highest likelihood of appearing in the edition. Those submitted later may be deferred to a subsequent edition.

Did you enjoy the articles in the July/August edition? Want to comment on an article? Join the discussion group, MetricViews 2015 Jul/Aug Discussions, log in, scroll down to select a topic, and add your comments.
